

OFFICERS
DIRECTORS
DISTRICT
GOVERNORS
LIONS
INTERNATIONAL

Clarence L. Sturm

Dudley L. Simms

Clarence L. Sturm, Manawa, Wis., was elected President at the 1959 Convention in New York after service through the three Vice-Presidencies and as an International Director. A Charter Member of the Manawa club, he holds the Key, 100% Attendance, Extension and Ambassador of Good Will Awards. He is a member of the firm of A. Sturm & Sons, food processors and packers. Mr. Sturm is a Vice-President of CARE, the international welfare agency, to which he has devoted much time and effort. He and his wife Norma have one daughter, (Mrs. Ross Bauer).

Dudley L. Simms, Charleston, W. Va., is Immediate Past President of the Association. He became a Lion in 1937 and attained the Presidency after serving through club and district offices and as an International Director. He developed the Association's Membership Development and Retention program and originated the club president's manual. Head of a chain of Piece Goods Shops in West Virginia, he and his wife Opal have four children: Mrs. Patricia Marie Harrison, Mrs. Betty Lee Sears, twin sons, John Lee and Dudley Lee III, and seven grandchildren.

OFFICERS AND DIRECTORS

Finis E. Davis, First Vice-President, Louisville, Ky., is Superintendent of the American Printing House for the Blind. A Key Member, he served as District Governor and then International Director. Mr. Davis is on the Executive Council of the International Conference of Educators of Blind Youth. He and his wife Ethlyn have three daughters: Mrs. Marybel Black, Juliann and Linda Sue.

Finis E. Davis

Per Stahl, Second Vice-President, Eskilstuna, Sweden, is Managing Director of Adolph Stahlsaktiebolag, manufacturers of tools and cutlery. Former club and district officer, he became an International Director in 1953. He holds the President's and Merit Awards and is an Ambassador of Good Will. He and his wife Inger are the parents of three children: Torbjorn, Gunilla and Margareta.

Per Stahl

Curtis D. Lovill, Gardiner, Maine. Third Vice President. A Past Int. Director, Lion Lovill is a charter member of the Gardiner club, an International Counsellor, a Senior Master Key member and holder of the Merit Award. He is President of the Eagle Publishing Company and editor and publisher of the Gardiner Advertiser and the Winthrop Advertiser. He and his wife Mary are active in church work.

Curtis D. Lovill

Miguel E. Abed

Miguel E. Abed, Mexico, D.F., Mexico. Director. A former Director (1955-56), International Counsellor and Past President of the National Association of Lions Clubs of Mexico, Lion Abed holds the valued International Membership Key. His many business interests include real estate and textiles. He was chairman of the Mexico City convention, 1952. He and his wife Conchita have eleven children.

Thomas G. Basil, Annapolis, Md. Director. A Past President of the Annapolis club, he is a Key Member, an International Counsellor and holder of the 100% District Governor's Award. In the insurance and real estate business, Lion Basil was Police Commissioner of Annapolis, a City Councilman and an active leader in many community agencies. He and his wife Elsie have one child.

Thomas G. Basil

Luis Eduardo Giraldo Lopez, Sincelejo, Bolivar, Colombia. Director. A charter member of the Sincelejo club, he is a Key Member, International Counsellor and recipient of the Extension, Merit and President's Awards. Superintendent and Director of Transandina Construction Co., Lion Giraldo has received many honors for civic activities. He and his wife Olga have two daughters.

Luis Eduardo Giraldo Lopez

Dr. Harry E. Goddard

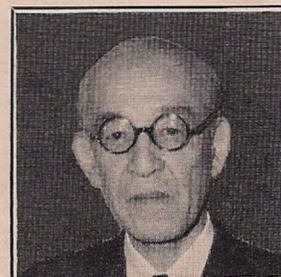

Dr. Harry E. Goddard, Kennett, Mo. Director. Senior Master Key Member of the Kennett club, he is an International Counsellor holding the Extension and 100% District Governor's Awards. Dr. Goddard is a practicing dentist and Sec.-Treas. of the Southeast Missouri Dental Association. He is an active leader in the Boy Scout movement. He and his wife Jeanette have one child.

Gilvan Machado Guimaraes, Recife, Brazil. Director. A charter member of the Recife club, Director Machado is a Key Member and an International Counsellor. He studied law and is now an industrialist. His many interests include the Presidency of the Regional Council of Industrial Training Service in Colombia. He and his wife Edina are the parents of four children.

Gilvan Machado Guimaraes

Kin-ichi Ishikawa, Tokyo, Japan. Director. The death of Director Ishikawa exactly one month after his election to the International Board shocked the World of Lionism. He was Charter President of the Tokyo club and an International Counsellor. He was internationally famed for his scholarly translations of important literature into the Japanese. He is survived by his wife Eigh, five children.

Kin-ichi Ishikawa

DIRECTORS

Javier De Izcue De La Fuente, Lima, Peru. Director. Lion Izcue was a charter member of the Lima and Miraflores clubs, serving both as President. He is an International Counsellor, holding the Silver Key, Merit and Charter Chevron Awards. Manager of the Banco Popular of Peru, Director Izcue is a member of the City Council of Lima. He and his wife Armida are the parents of two children.

Ivan H. Jackson, Cartersville, Ga. Director. A Master Key Member, Lion Jackson is an International Counsellor and recipient of the Extension and 100% District Governor Awards. He is Commercial Sales Engineer of the Georgia Power Company. Director Jackson is a member of the Board of Stewards of the Methodist Church and he and his wife Irma are active in church and community affairs.

A. C. Kidd, Wewoka, Okla. Director. He has held practically every office in his club and district, is a 30-year member and holds the Senior Master Key. A practicing attorney, he is President of the County Bar Association, was Mayor of Wewoka and a state officer of the Jaycees. He served as county chairman in Heart, Cancer and Red Cross campaigns. Director Kidd and his wife Neona have one child.

R. A. Lipscomb, Odessa, Texas. Director. He served as President of the Odessa club, District Governor and Chairman of the Council of Governors, holding the Extension Award and the Senior Master Key. An insurance executive, Lion Lipscomb is a life member of the National Education Association. He is a former Mayor of Wink, Texas. He and his wife Mary Irene have one son.

Paul W. Mahady, Latrobe, Pa. Director. Lion Mahady is an International Counsellor. A graduate of the Harvard Law School, he is a member of the law firm of Mahady & Mahady, the Amvets, National Judge Advocate of the American Legion and of his state Bar Association. A Lt. Colonel in World War II, he received the Legion of Merit and the Commendation Medal with cluster. He and his wife Janet have two sons.

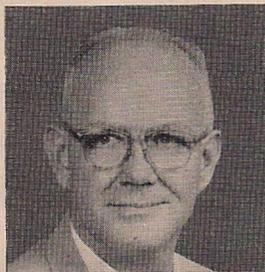

Maurice Perstein, San Francisco, Cal. Director. An International Counsellor, he was originator and chairman of "Operation Philippines." Director Perstein holds the Ambassador of Good Will Award and is a Key and Life member. He is a partner in San Francisco's well-known Pioneer Flag Company and Pioneer Electric Construction Company. He and his wife Yvette have two sons.

James D. Richardson, Brunswick Heads, Australia. Director. Charter President of the Brunswick-Mullumbimby club, Lion Richardson is an International Counsellor and holder of many awards in Lionism. He is a hotel manager. He served as bomber pilot in the Royal Australian Air Force and was President of the Sailors, Soldiers and Airmens Imperial League. He and his wife Pamela have one son.

Al A. Schock, Sioux Falls, S. D. Director. Chairman, Executive Council, Board of Governors, 1957-58. International Counsellor, Key Member, holder of several Lion awards. A U. S. Army officer in World War II, Lion Schock received the Bronze Star and Purple Heart. He is co-owner of a dairy processing plant in Sioux Falls. He and his wife Phyllis have three children.

Ugo Sola, Rome, Italy. Director. An International Counsellor, Lion Sola has served the Italian Government as Ambassador to Brazil, Roumania and Albania. He was President of the Center for International Reconciliation, President of Honor of the Institute for Exploration of the Mediterranean Sea, and holds the Grand Cross of the Italian Crown Order. He and his wife Matilde have three children.

Javier De Izcue De La Fuente

Ivan H. Jackson

A. C. Kidd

R. A. (Lip) Lipscomb

Paul W. Mahady

Maurice Perstein

James D. Richardson

Al A. Schock

Ugo Sola

DIRECTORS

Frank A. Bartlett, Hamilton, Ontario, Canada. Director. A Key Member and International Counsellor, Director Bartlett has been President of the International Association of Lions Clubs of Canada. Trained as an accountant, he is owner of an automotive and industrial brake and clutch service, member of the Hamilton Chamber of Commerce and of the Executives Association. His wife's name is Violet.

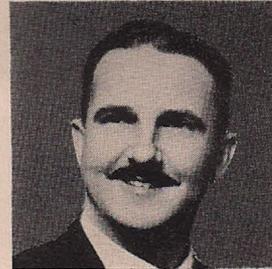

Frank A. Bartlett

Dr. Walter H. Campbell, Miami Beach, Fla. Director. A former District Governor, Lion Campbell is a Key Member, Ambassador of Good Will and holds the Extension, Merit, District Governor and President's Awards. He is a dentist, and in World War II served as Captain in the Army Dental Corps. Active in community and fraternal groups, Dr. Campbell was born in Tennessee and attended Northwestern U.

Dr. Walter H. Campbell

Dr. Serafin Fernandez Lopez, Santa Clara, Cuba. A charter member of the Santa Clara club, Dr. Fernandez is an International Counsellor and holder of a 20-year Charter Chevron, the Key of Nations and a 21-year perfect attendance record. A graduate of Havana University, Director Fernandez is a practicing ophthalmologist and founder of the Cuban Red Cross. He and his wife Maria Teresa have two children.

Dr. Serafin Fernandez Lopez

A. Garland Hardy

A. Garland Hardy, Muncie, Ind. Director. Director Hardy is a Past President of his club, an International Counsellor and a Key Member. He is a graduate of Ball State Teachers College, did his graduate work at Columbia University and then returned to his alma mater to be Administrative Assistant to the Director of Graduate Studies. He and his wife Mildred are active in civic and church work.

Oren E. Long

Oren E. Long, Honolulu, Hawaii. Director. He has served as president of the Honolulu club, of which he has been a member since 1926, and District Governor. A native of Kansas, he holds degrees from the University of Michigan, Columbia University and the University of Hawaii. He is a United States Senator representing Hawaii. He and his wife are active in church work.

Sherman B. Lowe, Salt Lake City, Utah. Director. A Master Key Member, he has served his club as secretary and president. He was Zone Chairman, Deputy District Governor, District Governor and Vice-Chairman of the Executive Council of Board of Governors. Father of six children, he is Administrative Assistant to the State Governor and senior partner of Lowe Drug Co.

Sherman B. Lowe

Alcee F. Maxfield

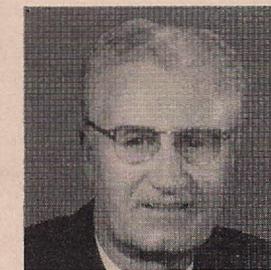

Alcee F. Maxfield, Lake Charles, La. Director. He has been president of his club, Zone Chairman, Deputy District Governor and District Governor. A Key Member, he has received the Extension and District Governor Awards. He studied at the American Institute of Banking, was a banker before turning to sub-division development. His wife's name is Katherine.

William K. Richardson, Galesburg, Ill. Director. A Master Key Member with a perfect attendance of 19 years, he has been president of his club and held various District offices, including that of District Governor. He received an A.B. from Knox College and his LL.B. from Michigan. A Presbyterian, he maintains a law practice in addition to being circuit court clerk and recorder.

William K. Richardson

Randell D. Watkins, Laramie, Wyo. Director. Chairman of the Board of Governors last year, he has served as president of his club and District Governor. He has received the Extension Award. A Texas native, he holds degrees from North Texas State and Southern California. He is chairman of the department of physical education at the University of Wyoming.

Randell D. Watkins

DIRECTORS

Robert D. Wyatt, Detroit, Mich. Director. He has held all offices in his club, served as Zone Chairman and District Governor. He has been chairman of the State White Cane Committee and adviser of Leader Dogs for the Blind School. Holder of degrees from Alma College and Wayne State University, he is assistant principal of a Detroit high school. He and his wife have one son.

Enrique Porras, Managua, Nicaragua. Director. A former officer of his club, he has been a District Governor and was General Chairman of the 17th District Convention. He is a physician and surgeon, studied at the University of Leon, San Carlos University and Institute of Urology in London. He is past president of Nicaragua Medical Association.

Jim Sexton, Phoenix, Ariz. Chairman, Board of Governors. He is a Charter and Key Member of Camelback Mountain Club, has served as its president in addition to Zone Chairman and District Governor. Born and reared in Kansas, he attended universities in three states. He is president of the Arizona Color Card Corp. Lion Sexton and his wife have two children.

Dr. Alexandre Théler, Sion, Switzerland. Chairman, Board of International Relations. An ex-officio member of the Board of Directors, he is a Charter Member of his club and has been its president. He holds a 10-year perfect attendance record and the President's Medal. Director of the Institute of Commerce of Sion, he is married and has three children.

Melvin Jones, Chicago, Ill. Secretary-General and Founder. He was elected Secretary of the Association at the organizational convention in Dallas, Texas in 1917. In 1950, the Board of Directors conferred upon him the lifetime title of Secretary-General. He received his present title at last year's Convention. He and his wife, Lillian, reside in Flossmoor, Ill.

John H. Vogt, Chicago, Ill. Executive Administrator. Appointed to his present post in November, 1957, he is the chief administrative officer of the Association and reports directly to the President. His background includes many years of managerial experience in mercantile and industrial organizations. A University of Iowa graduate, he and his wife Jeane have two children.

R. Roy Keaton, Chicago, Ill. Director-General. He became a Lion in 1929 and came to work for the Association in 1934. Between that time and 1950, when he took over his present duties, he served as Special Representative, State Secretary of Texas and Assistant Secretary-General. A graduate of Southern Methodist, he and his wife Elizabeth have two children.

Wilburn L. Wilson, Chicago, Ill. Treasurer. A Master Key Member of the Central Lions club of Chicago, he has been with the Association since 1932, serving as Treasurer since 1945. He is a Louisiana native and a graduate of the Chillicothe (Mo.) Business College. He is married to Anne, has two children and is a member of the Board of Trustees of the Lutheran Church.

William R. Bird, Chicago, Ill. Secretary. He is a Key Member and Director of the Englewood Lions club of Chicago. An Indiana native, he has been with the Association since 1937 and Secretary since 1947. He earned his law degree from John Marshall Law School, Chicago, and belongs to the American Bar Association. Secretary Bird is Chairman of the International Convention Committee. His wife's name is Ann.

Robert D. Wyatt

Enrique Porras Garcia

Jim Sexton

Dr. Alexandre Theler

ADMINISTRATIVE OFFICERS

Melvin Jones

John H. Vogt

R. Roy Keaton

Wilburn L. Wilson

William R. Bird