

OFFICERS
AND
DIRECTORS
OF LIONS
INTERNATIONAL

FINIS E. DAVIS

CLARENCE L. STURM

Finis E. Davis, Louisville, Ky., was elected President at the International Convention in Chicago in July. A Key Member, he has served as president of Louisville club, District Governor, International Director and in all the International Vice-Presidencies. He holds the Extension, 100% District Governor's and International President's Awards and is an Ambassador of Good Will. Educated at the University of Arkansas, he is vice-president and general manager of the American Printing House for the Blind. A Presbyterian, he and his wife Ethlyn have three daughters—Juliann, Linda Sue and Marybel (Mrs. Robert Black).

Clarence L. Sturm, Manawa, Wis., is the Immediate Past President of the Association. A charter member of the Manawa club, he was a District Governor and an International Director before being elected to various Vice-Presidencies and then the Presidency of the Association. He is a Key Member and has received the 100% Attendance, Extension and the Ambassador of Good Will Awards. A graduate of Northwestern University, he is a member of the firm of A. Sturm & Sons, food processors and packers. He and his wife Norma are Lutherans and have one daughter, Beverley (Mrs. Ross Bauer).

Per Stahl

Frank A. Bartlett

Gilvan Machado Guimaraes

Curtis D. Lovill

Dr. Walter H. Campbell

A. Garland Hardy

Aubrey D. Green

Dr. Serafin Fernandez Lopez

Jaime E. Del Hierro

Per Stahl, Eskilstuna, Sweden. First Vice-President. A former club and district officer, he was elected an International Director in 1953. He is a Key Member, holds the Merit Award, International President's Award and is an Ambassador of Good Will. He is managing director of Adolph Stahlsaktiebolag, a firm which manufactures tools and cutlery. A Lutheran, he and his wife Inger have a son, Torbjorn, and two daughters, Gunilla and Margareta.

Curtis D. Lovill, Gardiner, Maine. Second Vice-President. A charter member of the Gardiner club, he has served as its president and as District Governor. He is a Senior Key Member and holds the Merit Award. He is president of the Eagle Publishing Co., editor and publisher of both the Gardiner Advertiser and the Winthrop Advertiser. Lion Lovill and his wife Mary are active in the First Universalist Church.

Aubrey D. Green, York, Ala. Third Vice-President. He has served as president of the York club, District Governor and International Director. A Key Member, he holds the 100% District Governor's and Extension Awards. He is an auto dealer, a director of the Alabama Automobile Dealers Association and an Alabama State Senator. A deacon of his Presbyterian Church, he and his wife Ellen have a daughter, Mary Ellen.

Frank A. Bartlett, Hamilton, Ontario, Canada. Director. He served as president of the Hamilton (Central) club, Deputy District Governor and president of the Lions Clubs of Canada. Recipient of the Extension and District Governor's Awards, he is a Key Member and has a perfect attendance record of 14 years. He owns a brake and clutch firm. His wife's name is Violet.

Dr. Walter H. Campbell, Miami Beach, Fla. Director. A former president of his club, he served in various district offices, including that of District Governor. He is a Key Member and Ambassador of Good Will, holds the Merit, Extension, District Governor and International President Awards. A graduate of Northwestern University, he is a dentist and belongs to the Community Church.

Dr. Serafin Fernandez Lopez, Santa Clara, Cuba. Director. An International Counsellor, he served as his club's president and held various district offices. Recipient of a 20-year Charter Chevron and the Key of Nations, he has a 22-year perfect attendance record. He is an ophthalmologist and founder of the Cuban Red Cross. He and his wife Maria Teresa have two children.

Gilvan Machado Guimaraes, Recife, Brazil. Director. Holder of the Extension Award, he is a charter member of his club, a Key Member and an International Counsellor. He is an industrialist and director of the Federation of Pernambuco State Industries as well as president of the Building Material Syndicate. He and his wife Edina have four children.

A. Garland Hardy, Muncie, Ind. Director. A past president of the Muncie club, Director Hardy is a Key Member and an International Counsellor. He received two degrees from Ball State Teachers College and did graduate work at Columbia University. He is Administrative Assistant to the Director of Graduate Studies at Ball State. His wife's name is Mildred.

Jaime E. Del Hierro, Quito, Ecuador. Director. He was president of the Quito club for two terms and a Deputy Governor twice before becoming a District Governor. Active in civic and professional affairs, he is an importer, cattle raiser and dealer in cotton goods. Director Del Hierro and his wife Laura are members of the Roman Catholic Church. They have two children.

Eulalio F. Legaspi, Quezon City, Philippines. Director. A Key Member, he served as Deputy Governor, Cabinet Treasurer and District Governor. He was elected an International Director at the recent convention in Chicago. A graduate of the University of the Philippines, he is an attorney and businessman. He and his wife Lucina are Roman Catholics, have five children.

Oren E. Long, Honolulu, Hawaii. Director. A member of the Honolulu club since 1926, he served as its president and as District Governor. He received a Special Service Award and holds degrees from Columbia, Michigan and Hawaii universities. He was Governor of Hawaii before being elected to the U. S. Senate. He and his wife Geneva belong to the Christian Church.

Sherman B. Lowe, Salt Lake City, Utah. Director. He has been president of his club, Zone Chairman, Deputy District Governor, District Governor and Vice-Chairman of Executive Council of Board of Governors. A Master Key Member, he is senior partner of the Lowe Drug Co. and Administrative Assistant to the Utah State Governor. He and his wife Nina have six children.

Alcee F. Maxfield, Lake Charles, La. Director. Recipient of Extension and District Governor Awards, he has been president of his club, Zone Chairman, Deputy District Governor and District Governor. He holds a 12-year perfect attendance record. A real estate developer, he is a past president of the Louisiana Lions League for Crippled Children. His wife's name is Katherine.

William Berge Phillips, Sydney, Australia. Director. A charter member and past president of his club, he is an International Counsellor and Master Key Member. He holds numerous Awards, served as chairman of Australian Council of Governors and on Board of International Relations. He is a leading amateur sports official. An attorney, he and his wife Nell have a son and daughter.

William K. Richardson, Galesburg, Ill. Director. With a 20-year perfect attendance record, he was his club's president, Cabinet Secretary, Zone Chairman, Deputy District Governor and District Governor. He is a Master Key Member. A graduate of Knox College and the University of Michigan, he is a lawyer as well as circuit court clerk and recorder. He's a Presbyterian.

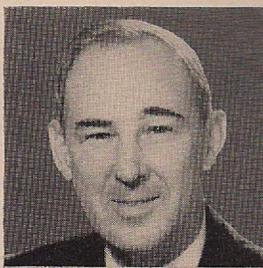

Paul Simpelaere, La Panne, Belgium. Director. He served as charter president of his club, later became Zone Chairman, Deputy District Governor, District Governor and a member of Board of International Relations. He is an Extension Award holder. An attorney and real estate man, he is past president of the Notary Association of Belgium. He and his wife Milia have six daughters.

Ovidio Suarez Morales, Cochabamba, Bolivia. Director. An International Counsellor, he is a charter member of the La Paz club and served as its president. Holder of a doctorate in biochemistry from the University of Buenos Aires, he manages his own laboratory in addition to being board chairman of Industrias Albus, S. A. He and his wife Leonor are Catholics, have two children.

Randell D. Watkins, Laramie, Wyo. Director. A past chairman of the Board of Governors, he has been president of his club and earned the Extension Award. He received a doctorate in education from the University of Southern California and is chairman of the University of Wyoming's Department of Physical Education and Recreation. His wife's name is Evangeline.

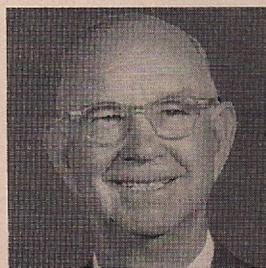

Eulalio F. Legaspi

Alcee F. Maxfield

Paul Simpelaere

Oren E. Long

William Berge Phillips

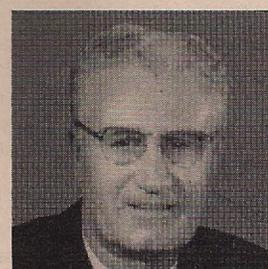

Ovidio Suarez Morales

Sherman B. Lowe

William K. Richardson

Randell D. Watkins

Robert D. Wyatt

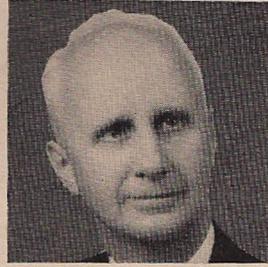

John M. Booth

Henry J. McFarland

Raul Abascal Guzman

Leo C. Graybill

Charles W. Mowery

Ralph E. Blaney

Edward M. Lindsey

Dwight E. Stanford

Robert D. Wyatt, Detroit, Mich. Director. He held all offices in his club and the various District offices. An International Counsellor, he was for many years chairman of the Michigan White Cane Committee and an adviser of the Leader Dogs for the Blind School. He is assistant principal of Burroughs Junior High School. He and his wife Grace have a married son.

Raul Abascal Guzman, Guanajuato, Mexico. Director. He helped found his club, served as its president and as Zone Chairman, Deputy Governor and District Governor. A Key Member, he is past president of the Mexican National Association of Lions Clubs. He is a sales representative and insurance broker. A Roman Catholic, he and his wife Josefina have five children.

Ralph E. Blaney, Old Fort, Ohio. Director. Recipient of three Extension Awards, he served in all offices of his club and on all state committees. He is an International Counsellor and a Key Member. He graduated from the Ohio State University and now manages a farm cooperative. He and his wife Lois belong to the Evangelical United Brethren Church, have two children.

John M. Booth, North Providence, R. I. Director. A Key Member, he held every office in his club. He is an International Counsellor and a past chairman of the New England Council of Governors. A law graduate of Northwestern University, he is an attorney and former Juvenile Court Judge. He and his wife Margaret have two children, are members of the Baptist Church.

Leo C. Graybill, Great Falls, Mont. Director. He is a past president of his club, a Key Member and an International Counsellor. President of the Belt Valley Bank, he served seven terms as a Montana State Representative and was House Speaker for two years. He is on the Advisory Council of the National Democratic Committee. He and his wife Atta have two children, are Presbyterians.

Edward M. Lindsey, Lawrenceburg, Tenn. Director. He is a Key Member, has been his club's president and a District Governor. A furniture manufacturer, he was Mayor of Lawrenceburg for four years and was named the outstanding mayor of Tennessee in 1955. He is head of the Lawrence County Historical Society. He and his wife Virginia have a daughter, belong to Methodist Church.

Henry J. McFarland, Albany, N. Y. Director. A past president of his club, he is a Key Member and an International Counsellor. He has two degrees from the University of California and is a personnel consultant. During World War II, he was Deputy Director of Civilian Personnel for the Navy. Father of three children, he and his wife Harriett are Methodists.

Charles W. Mowery, York, Pa. Director. Holder of a nine-year perfect attendance record, he has served as president of the Mount Rose club and as District Governor. The Key, Extension and International President Awards have been presented to him. He is comptroller of the U. S. Naval Ordnance Plant in York. He and his wife Dorothy have three children, attend Church of Christ.

Dwight E. Stanford, San Diego, Calif. Director. A Master Key Member with a 20-year perfect attendance record, he has served as president of the San Diego (Hillcrest) club and is an International Counsellor. He has three degrees, is an attorney and holds Scouting's Silver Beaver Award. Father of two children, he and his wife Maxine belong to the Presbyterian Church.

Wallace I. West, Wilmington, N. C. Director. He has served as his club's president and as District Governor. A Key Member, he has a 13-year perfect attendance record and received the International President's Award. He is a school principal, past president of the North Carolina Education Association and Wake Forest Alumni Association. He and his wife Virginia Lee have two sons.

Rodrigo Sotela, San Jose, Costa Rica. Director. A past president of his club, he is a Key Member and an International Counsellor. He graduated from the University of Costa Rica and is in the highway construction business. He was named a delegate to the Economics Committee of the United Nations in 1955. He and his wife Gilda have five children, are Roman Catholics.

Lytle C. Fowler, Oxford, Miss. Chairman, Board of Governors. He is an International Counsellor, a Master Key Member and former president of the Oxford club. Recipient of degrees from New York and Kentucky universities, he is associate professor of office administration and business education at the University of Mississippi. His wife's name is Adlin.

Dr. Hans Rauh, Salzburg, Austria. Chairman, Board of International Relations. A charter member of his club, he is an ex-officio member of the Board of Directors. He has been a leader in refugee work and in the Children's Exchange Program. He is in the import and export business in Salzburg. Dr. Rauh and his wife Olga are the parents of three children.

Melvin Jones, Chicago, Ill. Founder and Secretary-General. In 1914, as Secretary of the Business Circle of Chicago, he began laying groundwork for the formation of Lions International. He was elected Secretary of the Association when it was founded in Dallas three years later. He was given the title of Secretary-General for life in 1950 and now serves as consultant to the Board. He and his wife Lillian reside in Flossmoor, Ill.

John H. Vogt, Chicago, Ill. Executive Administrator. Chief administrative officer of the Association, he reports directly to the President and works under jurisdiction of the Executive Committee and the Board. He graduated from the University of Iowa and has had many years of management experience with leading mercantile and industrial firms. A member of the Park Forest Lions club, he and his wife Jean have three children.

R. Roy Keaton, Chicago, Ill. Director-General. He became a member of the Weatherford, Texas club in 1929 and joined the Association staff in 1934. He served as a Special Representative, Texas State Secretary and as Assistant Secretary-General before being named to his present post in 1950. A graduate of Southern Methodist, he and his wife Elizabeth have two children.

Wilburn L. Wilson, Chicago, Ill. Treasurer. A native of Louisiana, he has been with the Association since 1932. He is a Master Key Member of the Central Lions club of Chicago. He graduated from the Chillicothe (Mo.) Business College and was appointed Treasurer in 1945. A trustee of his Lutheran Church, he and his wife Anne have a son and daughter.

William R. Bird, Chicago, Ill. Secretary. He is a Key Member of the Englewood Lions club of Chicago and has been with the Association since 1937. He was named to his present post in 1947. He received his law degree from John Marshall Law School, Chicago, and is a member of the American Bar Association. A Presbyterian, he resides with his wife Ann in Maywood, Ill.

Wallace I. West

Dr. Hans Rauh

John H. Vogt

Rodrigo Sotela

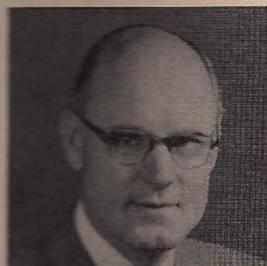

Melvin Jones

Wilburn L. Wilson

Lytle C. Fowler

R. Roy Keaton

William R. Bird