

OFFICERS & DIRECTORS OF LIONS INTERNATIONAL

DR. WALTER H. CAMPBELL

CLAUDE M. DEVORSS

Dr. Walter H. Campbell, Miami Beach, Florida, is the President of Lions International. As an International Director, he served on the Executive Committee. He holds the Award of Merit, the International President's Award, the Ambassador of Good Will Award, Extension Awards and the 100% District Governor Award. He is also a Key member. Lion Campbell has been active over the years in humanitarian affairs in his community, state and throughout the Caribbean area. He has been honored with the Ruben Dario decoration by the President of Nicaragua for worldwide humanitarian service. Prior to becoming a dentist, he was an educator, having been a teacher, athletic coach and school administrator. He received his education at Tennessee State College, Duke University and Northwestern University. He is a deacon in the Miami Beach Community Church, where he and his wife Terry (Victoria) are members.

Claude M. De Vorss of Wichita, Kansas, Immediate Past President of Lions International, has 20 years' perfect attendance. He was a club president, District Governor and U.S. Representative on the Board of International Relations. He holds the Ambassador of Good Will and Presidential Awards. Once Wichita's mayor, he served two terms on the Kansas League of Municipalities Board. He is now chairman of the Board of the Wichita Christian Academy and for over 20 years a member of the Official Board of Deacons of the Metropolitan Baptist Church. He is president of the De Vorss-Gard Mortuary. He and his wife Bernice have a daughter, Nancy Louise.

Edward M. Lindsey of Lawrenceburg, Tennessee, is the First Vice-President of Lions International. He has achieved a 19-year perfect attendance record. He has held club offices, served as District Governor and International Director. While mayor of Lawrenceburg, he was selected Tennessee's outstanding mayor. Lion Lindsey is a furniture manufacturer. An active member of the Methodist Church, he often serves as a Lay Speaker. He and his wife, Virginia, have one daughter, Mrs. Jerry (Anne) Ray.

Jorge Bird of San Juan, Puerto Rico, is Second Vice-President of Lions International. After serving in all Rio Piedras club offices, he became District Governor and later an International Director. He is winner of Ambassador of Good Will, Extension, 100% District Governor and Presidential awards. Educated in the field of commerce, he is president of Bird Enterprise, a combination travel, food, hotel, gasoline, finance, and real estate business. A Catholic, he and his wife Victoria have five children.

David A. Evans of Texas City, Texas, is the Third Vice-President of Lions International. He has received a Merit Award and three International President Awards. A Senior Master Key holder, he has introduced 31 members to Lionism. As a Director, he was Chairman of the International Membership Committee. A general contractor, he was educated at the University of Arkansas. He and his wife Betty are members of the Methodist Church and have two children, Tanya René and Joe.

Jørgen Bertelsen, Copenhagen, Denmark, Director. A Charter Monarch of Denmark's first Lions club, he is a past District Governor. His awards include the 100% District Governor, Extension and Achievement Awards. Director Bertelsen received a law degree from the University of Copenhagen and is a practicing attorney. He and his wife, Dorrit, have two children.

George Friedrichs, Annecy, France. Director. A past club president, he was a 100% District Governor. Director Friedrichs is founder of the Compagnie Generale de Metrologie "Metrix," manufacturer of electronic measurement instruments, and associated with the International Telephone and Telegraph Corp. He and his wife, Marie-Antoinette, are Roman Catholics and have three children.

Joseph W. Ganim, Stratford, Conn. Director. He is a past club president and has served his district as Zone Chairman, Governor and Chairman of the State Council. He earned a Presidential Award and is a Master Key Member. Active in civic affairs, Director Ganim is owner of a chemical plating company. He, his wife, Lee, and their two children are Roman Catholics.

Luis Garza Huerta, Puebla, Mexico. Director. He is past club president and District Governor. Among his honors are a Silver Key, Master Key and two Extension Awards. Director Garza, an industrialist, is in the cement industry. He and his wife, Alicia Ablanado de Garza, are Roman Catholics and have four children.

B. M. Stone, Jr., Baton Rouge, La. Director. He has been a 100% District Governor and District Membership Chairman. Holder of a Membership Key and an Extension Award, he has been Director of the Louisiana Lions League for Crippled Children. Director Stone has a bachelors degree in pharmacy from Loyola University in New Orleans and owns his own store. He, his wife, Ruth, and their three children are Baptists.

Chester A. Lesh, Seattle, Wash. Director. He is a past club president and former District Governor. A Key Member, he has a 25-year perfect attendance record. Director Lesh attended Whitman College and was graduated from the University of Washington Law School. He is a lawyer and is active in a variety of professional and civic groups. He and his wife, Mildred, are members of the First Presbyterian Church.

M. C. Lewis, Jr., Hot Springs, Ark. Director. A past club president, he has served his district as a Governor and Membership and Public Relations Chairman. He is a Key Member and has two Extension Awards. Director Lewis earned three bachelor degrees from the University of Texas and is now a lawyer. He is active in many community groups and is a Baptist.

Kozo Nomura, Kobe, Japan. Director. He has served as president of the Osaka Lions Club and as District Governor. A graduate of Kyoto University, he is auditor of the Nomura Securities Co., Ltd. and president of Nomura Overseas Enterprises Co., Ltd. Director Nomura and his wife, Masumi, are of the Buddhist faith and have three children.

William Parsons, Belmont, Australia. Director. His positions in local Lionism extend from club president to District Governor. He was chairman of the National Convention and holds 100% District Governor and Extension Awards. A company director, he and his wife, Marjorie, are Protestants.

Noshir N. Pundole, Bombay, India. Director. He was charter president of India's first club and served as the country's first District Governor. He has earned a Master Key, Supreme Extension and six President's Awards. A graduate in business administration from the University of Bombay, Director Pundole is a company director. He and his wife, Roshan, are of the Zoroastrian religion. They have three children.

Dr. M. Henderson Rourk, Shallotte, N.C. Director. He is past club president and has held numerous district offices, including Governor. He has earned a Membership Key and a President's Award. He received a B.S. degree from the University of North Carolina, M.B. and M.D. degrees from the University of Minnesota and a M.P.H. degree from Harvard University. He has been a practicing physician for 30 years. Dr. Rourk and his wife, Marie, are Presbyterians and have two children.

*OFFICERS
&
DIRECTORS*

Edward M. Lindsey

Jorge Bird

David A. Evans

Jørgen Bertelsen

George Friedrichs

Joseph W. Ganim

LIONS INTERNATIONAL

Luis Garza Huerta

B. M. Stone, Jr.

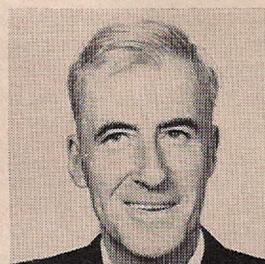

Chester A. Lesh

M. C. Lewis, Jr.

Kozo Nomura

William Parsons

Noshir N. Pundole

Dr. M. Henderson Rourk

Dr. Enrique Triana Castilla, Ibagué, Colombia. Director. He has been active in many district offices, including that of Governor. Among his honors are the Master Key, 100% Governor and three Extension Awards. He holds a Doctor of Odontology Degree from National University of Colombia. He heads the Federation of Odontologists of Tolima and is on the Board of the University of Tolima. Director Triana and his wife, Martha Sofia, are Roman Catholics and the parents of three children.

Paul van Hessen, The Hague, The Netherlands. Director. A past club president and District Governor, he holds the Merit, Key and 100% District Governor Awards. Outside of Lionism, he has been honored with a Cross of Merit and a Military Cross. He is managing director for several international enterprises and is a member of the Council of Arbitration for General Commerce. He and his wife, Nina, belong to the Reformed Jewish Church and are parents of five children.

Robert J. Uplinger, Syracuse, N.Y. Director. A past club president, he served as District Governor and Chairman of the New York State Council. He earned a Membership Key, two Extension Awards, Merit, Service and New York State Council Awards. Director Uplinger was educated at the University of Kansas and is president and treasurer of Robert J. Uplinger, Inc., distributors of power transmission equipment. He and his wife, Martha, have two children. They are Lutherans.

Juan Jose Willat Brito, Montevideo, Uruguay. Director. Former club president, he has served his district as Governor. He is a Key Member and holds an Extension Medal and Certificate. Director Willat, a retired Naval officer, is active as president of the Navy Club and is director of the Jose Pedro Varela Educational Institute. He has one son.

Edwin N. Yeary, Lexington, Ky. Director. He has served Lionism as club president and 100% District Governor and has a 21-year perfect attendance record. He is a Key Member and holds three Presidential Awards and an Ambassador of Good Will Award. Director Yeary, active in civic affairs, is president of Yeary Transfer Co. Lion Yeary is a member of the First Methodist Church. He and his wife, Kathryn, have one son.

Johnny Balbo, Western Springs, Illinois. Director. The holder of three International President Awards, he held offices at the club and District levels, once was Chairman of the State Council of Governors. At one time he was light heavyweight wrestling's world champion, and now owns a trailer park. He and his wife Anne have three children and are members of the Roman Catholic Church.

Don McDowell Berry, Juneau, Alaska. Director. In 14 years of perfect attendance, he has held most club offices, three Outstanding Achievement Awards, and was a 100% District Governor. Though Executive Director for the Alaska Municipal League, he finds time for community affairs. His family consists of his wife Pat and two daughters. They belong to the Roman Catholic Church.

Leon Campell, Greenville, South Carolina. Director. A past member of the International Executive Council, he has held key posts in Lionism, including the Presidency of the Greenville Club, Cabinet Secretary-Treasurer and District Governor for 32-A. His work as a realtor still leaves him time for many community endeavors. He is a Reform Jew, a widower and father of a daughter, Edith.

Ralph F. Easter, North Platte, Nebraska. Director. He holds a Master Key and three Extension Pins, worked his way through club offices to 100% District Governor, then Chairman of the State Council. An alumnus of Doane College, he now owns a bakery in North Platte and has been Lincoln County March of Dimes Chairman for 15 years. A Roman Catholic, he and his wife Lois have two children.

John Osborne Filkin, Toronto, Ontario. Director. A Lion since 1950, he was President of his local club in 1958-59 and Zone Chairman the following year. Since that time he has served as Deputy District Governor and 100% District Governor. He holds five Extension Awards. He is a landscape architect. Lion Filkin and his wife, Clare, have three daughters and one son.

Thomas Summers Gwynn, Jr., Clinton, Md. Director. A charter president of two clubs, he has held the post of District Convention Chairman and was a 100% District Governor. He is a Key Member and holds the Merit Award and three Extension Awards. Director Gwynn is Assistant Superintendent of Schools in Prince George County, Md. He and his wife, Letitia, have four children.

Valentine Umi Marciel, Kailua, Hawaii. Director. Holding every office at the club level, Lion Marciel organized the Waioli and Pali clubs. He is a Master Key Member and has maintained a perfect attendance record for over 22 years. He was District Governor in 1954-55. He and his wife, Helen Marie, have two children, Valentine, Jr. and Kuulei.

Alton C. Melville, Salt Lake City, Utah. Director. Lion Melville served as President of his local club while compiling a record of 15 years' perfect attendance. He has held positions as Zone Chairman, Deputy District Governor and District Governor. He was also Chairman of the Utah State Council, Multiple District 28. A lawyer, he and his wife, Verna, have three children.

Dr. Aureo Rodrigues, Santos, Sao Paulo, Brazil. Director. Lion Rodrigues has been a Deputy District Governor and District Governor of District L-4. He holds two Extension Awards, the Silver and Advancement Key and has a ten-year record of perfect attendance. Dr. Rodrigues is a member of the Brazilian Medical Association. He and his wife, Selma, are Catholics and have three children.

Richard Harrison Ruff, Welch, W. Va. Director. A past club officer of the Welch club, he has 17 years' perfect attendance. He was a 100% District Governor in 1956-57. He is a Key Member, holds two Extension Awards and an International President award. He is a founder and member of several community organizations. Lion Ruff and his wife Virginia Jean are members of the Episcopal Church and have one son, Richard.

OFFICERS
&
DIRECTORS
(Cont.)

Dr. Enrique Triana Castilla

Paul van Hessen

Robert J. Uplinger

Juan Jose Willat Brito

Edwin N. Yeary

Johnny Balbo

Don McDowell Berry

LIONS INTERNATIONAL

Leon Campell

Ralph F. Easter

John Osborne Filkin

Thomas Summers
Gwynn, Jr.

Valentine Umi Marciel

Alton C. Melville

Dr. Aureo Rodrigues

Richard Harrison Ruff