Words from the President

Spring is here. The birds are singing, the grass is growing and our Lions year is fast coming to a close.

The Tennessee, Pennsylvania, North Carolina and Mid-West pin swaps have come and gone with much fun, fellowship and friendship (with a little pin trading in between) at each one of them and at the time I write this, am looking forward to the LITPC Annual pin Swap in Jefferson City. What a great time I am sure will be had by all in attendance.

Speaking of LITPC, the raffle tickets have been distributed to all members and in our continuing effort to support Campaign Sight First II we encourage all of our members to purchase as many tickets as possible and send your checks to LITPC Treasurer Lion Harry Fulwiler. What a great way for pin traders to say again that we are LIONS FIRST and pin traders second.

Enjoy the balance of this Lions year and it is not too late to "INVITE" someone to join your "LOCAL" Lions club and our OHIO PIN TRADERS CLUB.

May you all have a safe summer and we look forward to seeing many of you at a convention or swap in the future.

Yours in Lionism

Merle Dutt

President

Hay Wagon Pin Still Available

A few of the Amish Hay wagon pins are still available. An order form is included in the newsletter. The club is presently planning its next pin and order forms will be included in the next newsletter. It appears we will stay with the Amish theme and if club members have suggestions for upcoming pins, please let us know.

Color version of the newsletter is available on the web site!

NOTES FROM YOUR EDITOR

Well, I guess I am back out of retirement to fill the shoes of the newsletter editor again. I want to thank PDG Marty Savage for the great job he has done the last couple of years while I was busy fulfilling my duties on the International Board.

One of the things we would like to make sure we do is inform traders of the new pins as they are issued in Ohio. If your club is issuing a pin, or you know of a club or an individual Lion who is putting out a new pin please get a copy to me so we can include it in the next newsletter.

Also if there is ordering info, please send it along and we will see that that information is also included in the newsletter.

We are still working on the new pin catalog and Districts G and K are almost completed. We are looking for help in the other Districts to see that the pins get scanned as soon as possible. If you want to help please let me know.

MORE FROM THE EDITOR...from Here and There

2009 MD State Pin Features Cleveland Landmarks

The 2009 state pin continues the state historical series and depicts the Terminal Tower and old Stone Church, both located in Cleveland and is District C's contribution to the series. The miniature pin authorized by the State International Convention Committee will be available to Ohio members of the pin trader club. Please see the order form below

Special Pin Issued for Bangkok Convention

The International convention committee has once again issued a special pin for the International convention in Bangkok Thailand. They are in limited supply as they were distributed to the incoming governors and the committee members. All Ohio attendees to the convention in Bangkok also received a pin. Additionally the committee presented the International board and officers with pins. The production was limited to 350.
